SSIA Debuts New Series of Videos on YouTube

SSIA began publishing a series of short videos promoting shoe repair in June. The videos are designed to remind consumers that shoe repair exists and direct them to SSIA-member shoe repair shops to repair and care for their footwear and other items.

“My primary goal when I was elected to SSIA's board of directors was to promote shoe repair to consumers,” says SSIA President Jim McFarland. “These videos take advantage of the low-cost, grassroots marketing available through social media. It is something we can afford and something that has proven to be very effective.”

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We Have Video Evidence of the Benefits of Shoe Repair

It's hard to believe a year has passed since I was elected SSIA's president. I was truly honored by your confidence in me and I've done my best to live up to it.

The primary item on my agenda was to promote shoe repair and find a way to bring more people into SSIA-member shops. We have taken a significant step in that direction with the videos we started releasing in June. In all, there will be 10 two- to three-minute videos aimed at consumers and covering topics ranging from the fact that shoe repair shops still exist, to how to buy shoes worth repairing, to caring for your shoes, to knowing when to bring them to a shoe repair shop.

SSIA is taking advantage of the low-cost, grassroots marketing opportunities presented by social media. I encourage you to take a look at the videos and share them. They provide generic information about shoe repair that will bring consumers to your shop.

Bringing consumers into shoe repair shops means more business for all of us. When our businesses grow, our wholesalers and suppliers get more business as well. All SSIA members will benefit.

You can find the videos on SSIA's YouTube channel. You can also find them on SSIA's website at www.ssia.info. Just scroll down the home page and you'll find them.

SSIA's 2019 convention in Orlando is just weeks away. I hope to see you there to discuss the videos and any other topic that's on your mind. There is plenty of information about the convention in this newsletter. You can also find the latest information at any time on SSIA's website at www.ssia.info/convention.

I have some thank yous I want to say as my first year as president comes to a close. First, a huge thank you to my partners on SSIA's board of directors. Together, I believe we have taken some significant steps this year. I hope we can continue to move forward in the future.

Your SSIA board members include Vice President Phil Wadzinski, Treasurer John McLoughlin, Secretary Pat McCabe and directors Jesse Pasternak, Shannon Embry, Ed Gitlin and Laurie MacPherson.

I would also like to thank my predecessor as president, Sandra Verbruggen, for making my transition easier. The work you did during your time on the board moved SSIA forward immeasurably.

Also, I would like to congratulate all of the recipients of SSIA's 2019 Silver Cup and World Cup Awards. This program is near and dear to my heart.

You won't find more deserving recipients than our Robert DiRinaldo Grand Silver Cup winner Ronald Nijdam and World Cup winner Steve Doudaklian. I hope you come to Orlando to meet these extraordinarily talented men and the other award recipients as well.

In closing, I want to thank you again for the confidence you placed in me by electing me to serve on SSIA's board of directors and as your president. I look forward to seeing everyone in Orlando. It's going to be a great show.

Jim McFarland

Promotional Tools

SSIA is committed to providing its members with tools they can use to promote their businesses. To that end, SSIA has produced a series of videos promoting shoe repair and encouraging consumers to visit member shops. You can see these videos in Orlando (or online on SSIA's YouTube channel) and provide input to SSIA's leadership for future videos.

You can also pick up some of the many posters and other promotional materials SSIA has created. Ask for them at the registration desk. If you are not an SSIA member, you can join on site.

Networking Opportunities

Perhaps the best thing about SSIA's convention is the opportunity to meet with your peers and talk shop. Hundreds of shoe repairers will gather in Orlando, as will several wholesale companies and, of course, the exhibitors. You will not find a better opportunity to meet with your peers face-to-face. You will take the relationships you build home with you and expand the resources available to you to solve problems and increase profits.

Free for SSIA Members

Show registration is free for members and $10 per person for non-members. It pays to register in advance to minimize your time at the registration table in Orlando. Visit www.ssia.info/convention and clicking on the registration link. You can join SSIA by visiting www.ssia.info/join.

Plan Your Visit to Orlando

SSIA's show lasts all day Saturday (including our Saturday night gala, free for all members) and Sunday until 2 p.m. For a list of things to do, there is a separate article in this newsletter. You can also visit www.visitorlando.com. The Wyndham Grand Orlando Resort Bonnet Creek also has quite a bit of information on its website, www.wyndhamgrandorlando.com.

Also, visit the SSIA web site for a complete schedule of events. We look forward to seeing you in Orlando in July.

The videos are two to three minutes in length and feature McFarland speaking to consumers with folksy messages about the fact that shoe repair still exists, the benefits of shoe repair, shoe care, when to repair shoes and other services shoe repair shops provide. Topics include:

- What is the Shoe Service Institute of America?
- Why Do Shoe Repair Shops Still Exist?
- Do I Need to Resole My Shoes?
- What Services do Shoe Repair Shops Provide?
- How to Polish Your Shoes
- Shoe Stretching
- Repairing Ladies Heels
- Sole Protectors
- Buying Quality Shoes
- Caring for Your Shoes

“These videos are not designed to promote any specific business or brand,” McFarland says. “They promote shoe repair and SSIA members.”

Each video directs consumers to the SSIA website for more information and, specifically, the site’s redesigned shop locator. The locator now lists only SSIA members and uses mapping software to direct consumers right to the members.

“As long as I have been a part of SSIA, I have heard my fellow repairers ask about the benefits of membership,” McFarland says. “Here are two at the top of the list. SSIA is promoting shoe repair to consumers and we are sending them to you.”

SSIA SHOP LOCATOR NOW FOR MEMBERS ONLY

SSIA has updated the shop locator on its website and made it a members-only feature. The update accompanies the release of SSIA's consumer videos.

"The videos encourage consumers to find the SSIA-member shops nearest them and we wanted to give them an updated tool to do so," says SSIA President Jim McFarland. "If you are not an SSIA member, I encourage you to join as SSIA is working on your behalf to make shoe repair more visible."

The locator can be found on SSIA's website, www.ssia.info. It contains a database of SSIA members, their contact information and a description of their business. It can be used by consumers to find SSIA members near them and can provide directions to each shop.

FIND AN SSIA MEMBER NEAR YOU

Use the locator below to find the SSIA member repair shops nearest you. If you own a shoe repair shop and want to be included in this locator, join SSIA today.

"Please take a moment to look at the locator and make sure your store information is correct," McFarland adds. "We have encountered a couple instances where the mapping software doesn't recognize the address we have on file. It's easily fixed, but only if we know about it. Email webmaster@ssia.info with any questions."

This is a key member benefit for SSIA shops. If your membership has expired, or if you have never joined, here are three ways you can be added to the locator.

1. Visit www.ssia.info/join and complete the online membership process. It will take less than five minutes.
2. Complete the membership application on the inside back cover of this newsletter and return it to SSIA headquarters.

3. Come to the SSIA convention in Orlando and join at the registration desk. You will also get free admission to the show and all of the benefits that come along with it.

Repairer membership dues for SSIA are $65 -- a small investment for a partner to help you promote your business.

NATIONAL SHOE REPAIR AWARENESS WEEK

National Shoe Repair Awareness Week is October 7-11 this year, and SSIA is celebrating by creating materials to help you promote shoe repair in your community.

“Our theme this year is Take Care of Your Shoes and They Will Take Care of You,” says SSIA President Jim McFarland. “We have created materials to reinforce how shoe repair saves consumers favorite shoes, saves them money, saves them physical discomfort and helps to save the environment.”

SSIA has created four items for repairers to use. All are available for SSIA members to download free of charge from www.ssia.info/nsraw.

Poster: Artwork is available as a high-resolution PDF file. The poster is designed to be 24” x 36” but can also be reproduced at half that size if wall space is limited.

Press Release: Available to download, personalize and send to your local media.

There are also tips and talking points on the site to help you work with the media.

Bag Stuffer: There is artwork for a bag-stuffer you can send home with your customers. Just download the artwork, personalize it with your logo and contact information and take it to your local copy center. It is an inexpensive and effective tool.

Facebook Header: Just download the artwork and follow the simple instructions for changing your Facebook header.

These materials are part of SSIA’s ongoing commitment to help its members promote shoe repair.

SSIA BAGS AVAILABLE

SSIA has produced millions of plastic bags in recent years designed to drive consumers to the SSIA web site and promote shoe repair. Sponsored by member suppliers and available from member wholesalers in boxes of 1,000, the bags carry the theme, "Shoe repair ... It's more than you think."

west serving the Greater Spokane community. For the past 73 years, we have been selling and repairing shoes or anything else that comes through the door!

However, the current owner is ready to retire and is offering the business for sale to other shop owners currently operating in large metropolitan cities. Are you, by chance, looking for a little slower pace of life, less traffic and a lower cost of living? Let me share a bit about Spokane, Washington, and our shoe repair shop.

Over the past seven decades, we have developed great relationships with many loyal customers making their shoes and boots look like new, plus repairing all types of sporting equipment and leather goods. Some of our established clientele in the Spokane community include Nordstrom, Hoffman Music, Spokane Firefighters, Spokane Police, and many more. Ressa's also draws customers from all over the region, including Idaho and Montana.

Spokane is the second largest city in Washington State with a population of 212,000. It features the amenities of a major metropolitan area, including many restaurants, shopping, sporting events, and annual community events such as Bloomsday, the largest timed foot race in the world and Hoopfest, the largest 3-on-3 basketball tournament in the world. Spokane is also surrounded by dozens of lakes within 1-hour of downtown, 5 ski resorts nearby, golf courses, and great hunting and fishing areas. Recreational opportunities abound!

There is growing potential in Spokane as many families and individuals are moving to the city where the average sales price of a family home is $211,000 and traffic is minimal compared to the "big city". Now is a great time to get into this booming Spokane market!
